*Who are the people at the edge of your church's life?
What is the church to them?
How does Christian spirituality guide and/or move them?*

Some youth are engaging more with the church and some are disengaging, why? How clearly do we hear the voice of the youth?

Those churches participating in the 2011 National Church Life Survey may select one, two or three extra surveys that focus on particular groupings to gain a clearer picture of their church's life and connectivity.

NCLS gives your church the online survey address and its own password to give out to prospective participants

The participants have 3 months to go online, use the church's password and do the brief survey

Results are made available to church leadership online, and key findings in your 2011 Church Life Profile
