

The religious affiliation of Australians from 1901 to 2016

‘What is your religion?’

Religious affiliation has declined over the past century

52% have a Christian affiliation or identity.

8% other religions.

30% ‘no religion’.

Source: National Census of Population and Housing, Australian Bureau of Statistics
 NB: Not stated. In 1901, 1911 and 1921 includes 'object to state'.

NB 2: Note change to order of responses in 2016

